

Main Street Minute: Arizona aeronautical campus launches new department

BY KTAR NEWSROOM | September 12, 2016 @ 10:23 am

KTAR's Main Street Minute focuses on local businesses that are hiring, opening and hosting events across the community. These stories air each weekday on KTAR at 7:27 a.m.

- Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University's Prescott, Arizona campus has launched a mechanical engineering department. Until recently, the program was part of the aerospace and mechanical engineering department, but it officially became a stand-alone department after enrollment tripled in recent years.
- Mountain Park Health Center in Arizona has been awarded more than $200,000 from the federal Department of Health and Human Services for high performance in five categories. The center has eight locations across the Valley.
- A Scottsdale-based food company has good news for gluten-free pizza lovers. The Phoenix Business Journal reports Mikey's Muffins has added gluten-free pizza crust to its offerings of gluten, grain, soy and dairy -free muffins.